

Connecticut-Trinity-Wesleyan Computer Science Consortium

DISTINGUISHED LECTURE SERIES

Free Your Mind: Social Change Begins with Software

LESLIE HAWTHORN

Thursday, November 19
7:30 p.m.

Washington Room, Mather Hall, Second Floor
Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut

Reception to follow

Leslie Hawthorn is a program manager for Google's Open Source Programs Office, where she's the community manager for the Google Summer of Code program. She conceived and managed the Google Highly Open Participation Contest, the world's first global initiative to get pre-university students involved in all aspects of open source software development. Leslie serves on the Advisory Board of the GNOME Foundation and the Open Source Business Resource. She serves on the Steering Committee for the Humanitarian Free and Open Source Software Project.

Prior to joining Google, Leslie got her feet wet in Silicon Valley high tech at a small communications semiconductor startup, where she worked in marketing and public relations. She holds a Honors B.A. in English Language and Literature from U.C.

Trinity College
HARTFORD CONNECTICUT

WESLEYAN
UNIVERSITY

THE HUMANITARIAN
FOSS PROJECT

Building Free Open Source Software for Society

The Joint Distinguished Lecture Series is funded by a grant from the Mellon Foundation. This talk is co-sponsored by the Humanitarian-FOSS Project, Trinfo Café (Trinity College), and I.T. Community Support Project (University of Hartford).